COOLEY LLP ATTORNEYS AT LAW SAN DIEGO Plaintiffs ask the Court to take judicial notice of, or incorporate by reference, nine documents in support of Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss (ECF No. 117 (Plaintiffs' "Opposition").) (See ECF No. 115 (Plaintiffs' Request for Judicial Notice); ECF No. 116 (Plaintiffs' declaration attaching documents labeled Exhibits 1-9).) Defendants respond to Plaintiffs' request pertaining to each document as follows:

Exhibit 1 – Greg Padilla Bail Bonds' Webpage "How Bail Works" with Embedded Video

To the extent Plaintiffs request only that the Court take notice of the existence of the webpage and linked video, Defendants do not object. To the extent Plaintiffs are requesting the Court take notice of the truth or accuracy of the statements therein, Defendants object because statements posted by a third-party on a privately maintained website are not properly subject to judicial notice. See Von Saher v. Norton Simon Museum of Art at Pasadena, 592 F.3d 954, 960 (9th Cir. 2010) (judicial notice may be taken of "the fact that" media outlets have published information, but "not whether the contents of those articles were in fact true") (internal quotations and citation omitted); Savin v. City and Cty. of San Francisco, No. 16-cv-05627-JST, 2017 WL 2686546, at *5 n.3 (N.D. Cal. June 22, 2017) ("As a general matter, courts are hesitant to take notice of information found on third party websites and routinely deny requests for judicial notice ") (quoting Gerriten v. Warner Bros. Entm't Inc., 112 F. Supp. 3d 1011, 1028-29 (C.D. Cal. 2015)); ECF No. 91 (Court's order on parties' previously filed requests for judicial notice) ("Order") at 5-7. Additionally, it should be noted that Plaintiffs' attempt to use a single bail agent's statement that "premiums may not be discounted" as evidence of a mass conspiracy by surety companies to suppress rebating (see Opp. at 56) demonstrates Plaintiffs' fundamental misunderstanding of unlawful discounting of premiums and lawful discretionary rebating of an agent's commission. (See ECF No. 112 (Defendants' Motion to Dismiss) at 33-36.)

Exhibit 2 – AIA Holdings, Inc. Webpage

To the extent Plaintiffs request only that the Court take notice of the existence of the webpage, Defendants do not object. To the extent Plaintiffs are requesting the Court take notice of the accuracy of the statements on the AIA webpage, Defendants object because statements maintained on private websites are not properly subject to judicial notice. See Von Saher, 592 F.3d at 960 (9th Cir. 2010); Savin, 2017 WL 2686546, at *5 n.3; Order at 5-7; see, e.g., Hsieh v. FCA US LLC, 440 F. Supp. 3d 1157, 1161 (S.D. Cal. 2020) (declining to take judicial notice of "the type of business in which [defendant] was involved" in part because it was not "a matter of 'common knowledge' within this district"). Furthermore, Plaintiffs should not be allowed to supplement the SCAC's deficient allegations against AIA by belatedly resorting to judicial notice of statements contained on AIA's website. In any event, reference to AIA as an "umbrella" or in "alliance" with International Fidelity Insurance Co. and Allegheny Casualty Co. does nothing to establish or define the legal relationship between AIA and these Surety Defendants.

Exhibit 3 – American Bail Coalition's 2005 Form 990

Defendants object to Plaintiffs' request for judicial notice of ABC's 2005 Form 990 except for the limited purpose of establishing that the form was filed with the IRS. Moreover, that filing is relevant only to the 2005 tax year. See Fed. R. Evid. 201(b); Gerritsen, 112 F. Supp. 3d at 1032 ("It is only 'appropriate[, however,] for the court to take judicial notice of the content of the SEC Forms [] and the fact that they were filed with the agency. The truth of the content, and the inferences properly drawn from them, however, is not a proper subject of judicial notice under Rule 201.") (quoting Patel v. Parnes, 253 F.R.D. 531, 546 (C.D. Cal. 2008)); see also In re Facebook, Inc. Sec. Litig., 405 F. Supp. 3d 809, 829 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (court would take judicial notice only of existence of 10b5-1 trading plan); Petrash v. Biomet Orthopedics, LLC, No. C 18-5508 SBA, 2019 WL 8013939, at *4 (N.D. Cal. June 6, 2019) (could would not take judicial notice of proffered evidence that company was a successor to another entity).

Exhibit 4 – Golden State Bail Agents Association ("GSBAA") Resources Web Page

While the Court may take judicial notice of the existence of a GSBAA webpage, to the extent that Plaintiffs are attempting to introduce a third-party's webpage or statements by referring to the "links" or information on GSBAA's webpage, that information is not subject to judicial notice. See Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). The content of a private website is also not properly subject to judicial notice to the extent Plaintiffs are requesting the Court take notice of the accuracy of the statements therein. See Von Saher, 592 F.3d at 960; Savin, 2017 WL 2686546, at *5 n.3; Order at 5-7.

COOLEY LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
SAN DIEGO

Exhibits 5-7 – Continental Heritage Insurance Company's 1999 CDI Rate Filing (Exhibit 5); American Contractors Indemnity Company's 1999 CDI Rate Filing (Exhibit 6); International Fidelity Insurance Company's 2017 CDI Rate Filing (Exhibit 7)

Defendants do not object to Plaintiffs' request for judicial notice of these excerpted CDI rate filings for the limited purpose of establishing that these excerpted documents were filed with the CDI. See Moore v. Saniefar, No. 1:14-CV-01067-SKO, 2015 WL 3487066, at *2 (E.D. Cal. Jun. 2, 2015) ("Even where judicial notice of a document is granted, it is the existence of such a document and not the truth of the matters asserted within the document that is judicially noticed.").

Defendants object to Plaintiffs' request to the extent it asks the Court to draw inferences based on the statements included within the CDI filings. In particular, Defendants object to Plaintiffs' use of Exhibits 5 and 6 for the inference Plaintiffs draw in their Opposition that Continental's and American Contractors' 15% high-risk rate category had "minimal impact" on the overall market. See Opp. at 15 n.2.; see, e.g., Hsieh, 440 F. Supp. 3d at 1161 (declining to take judicial notice of unwarranted inferences that were not "a matter of 'common knowledge' within this district").

Exhibit 8 – Continental Heritage Insurance Company's 2014 CDI Financial Condition Report

Defendants object to Plaintiffs' request for judicial notice of Continental's 2014 CDI Financial Condition Report except for the limited purpose of establishing that the forms were filed with CDI and not for the truth of the matters asserted. See Moore, 2015 WL 3487066, at *2. In particular, Defendants object to Plaintiffs' use of Exhibit 8 to establish that Continental has "other lines" of surety and product liability insurance. See Hsieh, 440 F. Supp. 3d at 1161. Defendants also object to Plaintiffs' request to the extent it asks the Court to credit the inference purportedly drawn from Exhibit 8, that the relevant page of Continental's financial statement (ECF No. 111-1, Defs.' Ex. 52, at 14), which on its face relates to Continental's bail-bond business, somehow includes costs associated with the company's other lines of business. See Opp. at 31; Patel, 253 F.R.D. at 546 (inferences that may be drawn from documents are not a proper subject of judicial notice).

Exhibit 9 – 2015 Allegheny Casualty Company Financial Examination Report

Defendants do not oppose judicial notice of the existence of the report, but oppose Plaintiffs' request to the extent they are requesting that the Court take notice of the truth of the report's contents.

Case 4:19-cv-00717-JST Document 123-1 Filed 08/03/20 Page 5 of 11

1 See Moore, 2015 WL 3487066, at *2; Hsieh, 440 F. Supp. 3d at 1161; Patel, 253 F.R.D. at 546; Order at 6 (granting judicial notice of the existence of CDI financial examination report regarding Defendant 2 3 Danielson National Insurance Co. but declining to take notice of the accuracy of the report's contents).) Plaintiffs cannot supplement deficient allegations in the SCAC by relying on judicial 4 5 notice of statements in the report. 6 7 Dated: August 3, 2020 COOLEY LLP 8 MICHAEL A.
